EVENTS IN THE EAST.

A Would-be Suicide Leaps from Brooklyn Bridge.

TALK BY A HOPEFUL REPUBLICAN.

Acceptance of Bids for Construction of New War Vessels—The W. C. T. U. and the K. of L.—Second Trial of McQuade.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—A brewer's wagon started from the New York entrance at 1:40 P. M., over the big bridge to Brooklyn. After the wagon passed the New York pier the watchman noticed something resembling a bundle of coats in the end of the wagon. This bundle assumed an upright position and turned out to be a man. The man slipped lightly from the vehicle to the roadway, mounted the iron girder that encloses it, and without hesitating a moment jumped off. He sped straight down to the river.

The officer ashore was the only one who had seen the man leap. He rushed into the roadway and ordered the driver to stop. The driver was surprised at the order and demanded an explanation. On being informed, it was evident from his astonishment that he was ignorant of the matter and he was allowed to proceed.

The name of the man who made the leap is Walter Kurz. An eye witness, who was on the Dover street pier, said to a reporter: "I was looking up at the bridge and saw a man get over the rail [illegible] to the lamp post outside of the New York tower. He clung to the rail for a moment and then let go. He turned two somersaults in the air and fell on his back in the water. He disappeared at once. The river seemed to suck him in, and spray splashed up several feet in the air."

THE MAN PICKED UP.

Very few people were on the pier at the time, but several hundred gathered in a few moments and there was great excitement. Policeman James O'Neil, of the bridge squad, arrived a few minutes later. He took the tug Columbia out to pick up Kurz, but the captain of a lighter steamer went out and picked up Kurz, before the tug arrived.

The jumper was under water about five minutes. When picked up he was frothing at the mouth, and was too exhausted to speak. His face had a weary look and his eyes were glassy and vacant in expression.

When the lighter reached the wharf Kurz was placed in an express wagon and taken to the nearest police station, and from there to the Chambers street hospital. At the station he was able to talk. He told the officer in charge that he wanted to commit suicide. He complained of pain in his head and side, and began to rave. At the hospital he was found to be suffering from the shock, but it is thought he will recover. When asked his reason for jumping, he replied, "I wish I was dead."

A HOPEFUL REPUBLICAN.

McKinley, of Ohio, Says the Issues in 1888 will be a Pure Ballot and Protection.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Congressman William McKinley, of Ohio, an eloquent advocate of protection, said to a Mail and Express reporter lately that he felt very sanguine as to republican success in the national election two years hence, but avoided naming any candidates.

"What will be the issue in 1888?" asked the reporter.

"It will be a pure ballot and protection for American labor and industry. The colored people in the South will soon be in conflict with our labor in the North unless they are permitted freedom of the ballot. They can not possibly have any remedy unless they are permitted to vote and have some voice in the making of the laws that govern them. The only remedy I see for the evil is to make a strong fight at the ballot box, and let the republican party once again be the champion of the oppressed. It is not waving the bloody shirt, but a genuine cry for justice to a class of citizens who have been granted certain rights by the constitution. The democrats will put it off as long as possible, and raise a dismal howl of the bloody shirt, but all the same they have got to make that issue in 1888."

"Has the republican party lost any ground during the last two years?"

"I think it has gained everywhere. The late elections certainly indicate renewed activity of that party. The most confirmed political pessimist can see nothing in the late elections to discourage republican hopes of success in 1888. The people are aroused on the tariff question, and do not intend to have the same condition of distress prevailing here as in free trade countries of Europe. The democratic administration has not inspired the country with confidence, and manufacturing industries everywhere become paralyzed when the regular tariff bill is brought up. The republican party, when in power again, will restore confidence, and the industries of the country will be developed and pushed forward with energy."

THE W. C. T. U.

It Issues an Address to the K. of L. and other Labor Organizations.

CHICAGO, Nov. [illegible]—In accordance with a resolution adopted at the recent Minneapolis convention, an address was issued by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union to "All Knights of Labor, Trades Unions and other Labor Organizations." It says: The Woman's Temperance Union is in sympathy with their methods as to involve co-operation, arbitration and the ballot box. They rejoice in the broad platform of mutual help, which recognizes neither sex, race nor creed, and the elevation to their rightful place of women. They mention, with joy, their hostility toward the saloon, and the vow made by newly elected officers of the Knights of Labor at Richmond, Va., when they pledged themselves to be total abstainers throughout their term of office. The address states that they do not believe that it is over-production so much as under-production that reduces the wages of the workingmen.

The Temperance Union calls attention to their White Cross pledge of equal chastity for man and woman, of pure language and pure life. The address asks for the help of labor organizations in efforts to secure adequate protection, by law, for daughters of rich and poor alike, from the cruelty of base and cruel men, also in their endeavors to preserve the American Sabbath with its rest and quiet. Appeal is made to the voters to cast their ballots only for such measures and such men as are solemnly committed to the prohibition of every brewery, distillery and dram shop in the nation.

The address is signed by Frances E. Willard, president, and Caroline B. Buell, corresponding secretary.

THE NEW NAVY.

Acceptance of Bids for the Construction of a Number of Vessels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The secretary of the navy to-day accepted the following bids for the construction of new cruisers and gunboats: Cruiser No. 2, the Charleston, Union Iron works, of San Francisco, at $1,017,500; cruiser No. 3, the Baltimore, Cramp & Sons, of Philadelphia, $1,325,000; gunboat No. 2, the Columbian Iron Works and Dry Dock company, of Baltimore, at $247,000. In the case of gunboat No. 1 no decision has yet been reached as between the bid of Roder & Sons and the bid of Cramp & Sons. Although the Union Iron works of San Francisco put in the lowest bid on cruiser No. 1, the Newark, yet as the figures exceeded the maximum amount fixed in the appropriation bill, the secretary was unable to accept their bid. He will probably refer the matter to congress, with a statement of facts, and recommend that the appropriation for the construction of cruiser No. 1 be increased, or that the government be authorized to build the vessel at one of the navy yards.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

A VICTIM OF OUTLAWS.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—A special to the Picayune from Lake Providence, La., says: S. Walkowski, representative from West Carroll parish, came here this afternoon and reported having been waylaid in his parish by a gang of outlaws, numbering about ten persons. He was accompanied by two friends. He expressed himself as fortunate in escaping assassination by taking to the woods. He further reported that at about 10 o'clock last night his bookkeeper, Maj. John McKay, justice of the peace, was shot and killed at his home, about four miles from Caledonia, together with his cook. His dwelling was set on fire and both bodies were consumed. Mr. Walkowski has a large business interest in West Carroll parish, where he had lived a great many years and brought up his family. He was compelled to leave everything behind in order to escape the vengeance of the outlaws.

THE SECOND TRIAL OF McQUADE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The second trial of Arthur D. McQuade, ex-alderman, accused of being offered a bribe in consideration of his vote on the Broadway Surface railroad franchise, was fixed to begin to-day. When a mass of eager people went hurrying up the steps of the court of general sessions, they found before the doors of department No. 1 a bar, with a sliding gate. Beyond this no one was admitted, except court officers, jurors, reporters and the accused, with his counsel. McQuade talked pleasantly with his counsel, among whom was Richard Newcombe, despite rumors that he had withdrawn from the case. District Attorney Martine, with his assistants, Col. Fellows and Delancy Nicoll, were on hand early. Recorder Smythe opened the court at 10:15 A. M. The calling of talesmen in the special panel to select a jury to try McQuade then began.

THE BOSTON EMBEZZLEMENT.

BOSTON, Nov. 29.—Among the complications which are constantly being brought to light by experts in the accounts of the South Boston Horse Railroad company it has been discovered that some of the certificates of stock have been reissued under the same numbers to second parties. When, on the transfer of stock, a certificate was returned to the company for cancellation, Reed would paste it on the stub from which it had been originally cut, and would subsequently reissue it, the holder having no reason to suppose that a duplicate of that number was already out. A block of [illegible] shares, thus twice issued, has been found. The experts will have to trace every certificate issued since the beginning of Reed's administration. This will be a work of weeks, and until it is finished the stockholders cannot ascertain the actual condition of the company.

HELD IN HEAVY BAIL.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—Ex-President Wm. H. Herbst, and cashier Henry Seltz, of the First National bank of Glen Rock, York county, Pennsylvania, were held in $5,000 bail each this afternoon by the United States commissioner on a charge of embezzlement. The testimony showed that notes amounting to over $70,000, most of which were drawn in favor of Herbst, were discounted at the bank by the cashier without the knowledge or consent of the board of directors. Herbst obtained bail, but Seltz was unable to secure bondsmen, and went to jail. Jacob and Wm. Herbst, jr., sons of [illegible], are under arrest at Baltimore on the same charge, and will be given a hearing on to-morrow.

A WIFE-MURDERER'S CONFESSION.

READING, Pa., Nov. 29.—Examination to-day of the house of Frank Kerner, who choked his wife to death and then set the building on fire to destroy evidences of his crime, shows that he had also made preparation to blow it up by running fuse from the upper [illegible] into a keg of powder. His intention was evidently to blow himself and the whole family, because, as he says, God had commanded him to do it. Kerner has made a full confession, detailing how he strangled his wife, then carried her [illegible] to the bed, poured coal oil over it and set it on fire. He is an anarchist in his ideas.

THE KENTUCKY HORROR.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 29.—A Courier-Journal special says: Five arrests have been made for complicity in the murder of the Poe family in Knox county, Kentucky. There is no longer any doubt that eight persons were murdered. Mr. B. M. Mitchell, brother of Mrs. Poe, admits such to have been the case, and says that the perpetrators will soon be arrested. The husband is insane, and not capable of attending to the matter himself, but the people of Knox county have the affair in hand and will investigate every clew.

A REWARD OFFERED.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 29.—The republican state committee to-day offered a reward of $5,000 for the arrest and conviction of those implicated in what they allege to have been ballot box "fixing" in the Third assembly district, Camden county.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

[illegible] AND THE IRON MOULDERS.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 29.—The Knights of Labor of this section are making increased efforts to gradually include all trades unions in their order as separate districts. The iron moulders assembly, No. [illegible], of this city, have had under consideration for some time past the advisability of going into one national trade district of Knights of Labor. A meeting has been called for next Friday night, when the matter will be more thoroughly canvassed. There are between 500 and 600 iron moulders in the two cities. If it is decided to form a national trades district it is said that all of the Knights of Labor moulders in the United States will be included in it.

THREE MEN OF A LIFE CREW PERISH.

LUDINGTON, Mich., Nov. 29.—At daylight this morning a schooner passed Ludington, and when off Point Sable she hoisted a flag at half mast. The Point Sable lifeboat went out, but when 500 yards out the flag went to the masthead. The lifeboat attempted to turn, and was capsized. The crew clung to the boat, which did not regain an upright position, but drifted ashore. Three of the crew lost their lives; Capt. Elson and Orrin Hatch died from exposure, and John Smith was caught under the boat and drowned. The schooner kept on her course.

ORGANIZING A LABOR PARTY.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—About 200 delegates, representing nearly all the trade and labor organizations in the city, are in convention to-night to perfect an independent political organization, for the purpose of taking active part in the municipal election in February next. Permanent organization was formed under the name of the united labor party. It was resolved to organize every ward and election division in the city.

LEFT HIS DEBTS BEHIND HIM.

DENVER, Nov. 29.—Report reaches here late tonight from Fort Collins, saying that F. L. Carter Cotton, manager of the Poudre Canal and Land company, has mysteriously disappeared and has not been heard of since last Thursday. It is supposed he has absconded, as he leaves indebtedness of nearly $30,500, all secured except $7,000.

ALLEGED RIOTERS DISCHARGED.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 29.—In the case of Carl Mueller, John Runge and August Lutz, the Milwaukee alleged rioters, Judge Sloan this morning suspended sentence and the prisoners were honorably freed.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

THE PORTUGUESE MAIL ROBBERY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Nicholas M. Bell, superintendent of foreign mails, has received a list of American registered packages lost in the recent Portuguese mail robbery. The following are among the originating offices and the number of packages lost which were mailed in the west: Sacramento, Cal., No. 671; Oakland, Cal., Nos. 709 and 710; San Francisco, Cal., Nos. [illegible] and 11,001. Referring to the statement cabled from Brussels that the Belgian government, under existing treaties, is responsible to this government for these lost packages, Superintendent Bell said that for want of congressional authority the postal authorities have not subscribed to that provision of the Lisbon postal union treaty, which provides for indemnification of owners for loss of registered matter, and as the provisions of the treaty are reciprocal in their operation, they bind only those governments which have become parties to them. Superintendent Bell also stated that statements in the dispatches purporting to give an aggregate value of the list of packages, were the merest guess work, as no one could know the value of the packages but the senders.

THE SHOES WERE WELL MADE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The board of commissioners of military prisons, directed to inquire into the charges made by Gen. Miles to the effect that shoes furnished to Capt. Lawton's command were of inferior quality, has made a thorough investigation of the working of the government shoe factory at the Fort Leavenworth military prison. They have reported to the secretary of war that the best material is used in the factory, and the workmanship is good. In the case of Lawton's command, the shoes were subjected to extraordinary wear over the roughest country, where shoes gave out within a month after being distributed in accordance with army regulations.

A BID FROM ST. LOUIS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—A committee of representative business men of St. Louis appeared today before Gen. Upshur, assistant commissioner of Indian affairs, and submitted argument in favor of the removal to St. Louis of the Indian supply warehouse now located at New York city. The commissioner has received applications from several other western cities to be heard on the question of removal.

NEW TWO-CENT STAMP.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—A design for the new two-cent postage stamp to be put into circulation in January next has been selected. It is said to be one of the handsomest specimens issued by the department. The design represents the head of George Washington in profile, on a blue tinted background.

SILVER STATISTICS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints during the week ended November 27 was [illegible],000, same week last year [illegible],000. Shipments of fractional silver coin since November 1 amounted to $[illegible],000.

NO AFTERNOON RECEPTION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The president was compelled to omit his usual afternoon reception to-day, in order to devote his attention entirely to his message and other matters to be submitted to congress.

THE FIRE RECORD.

FIRE IN PENNSYLVANIA GLASS WORKS.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 29.—The Pittsburg Plate Glass works at Creighton station, on the West Pennsylvania railway, twenty miles from this city, took fire this morning. The works are the largest in the country.

The fire was caused by an explosion of natural gas, and did not get beyond the machinery and foundry departments, which were nearly destroyed. The main building was not damaged. Loss $75,000, fully insured. No persons were injured.

Corrections.

The Rogue River Courier republishes a large part of THE OREGONIAN'S account of the mines of Josephine county, and corrects some slight errors therein. The author, Mr. Lang, derived part of his information from Mr. F. M. Nickerson, who calls the attention of the Courier to the errors which we hereby correct according to the statements of that paper.

Mr. Nickerson says his report of the product of the mines of southern Josephine for 1885 should read $50,000 instead of $500. (Probably a typographical error. ED. OREGONIAN.) Another error lies in the fact that Mr. Nickerson's report as published by the director of the mint says, "The Waldo Hydraulic Mining company, Scott's Gulch Mining company, and Messrs. Bybee & Newman have taken out about $[illegible] worth of gold." THE OREGONIAN confounds the Waldo Hydraulic Mining company with the claim of Louis & Simmons. The claim of Louis & Simmons is a new claim which is not yet entirely open so that it is not yielding dividends yet.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

Continuation of the Defense of Lord Campbell.

TESTIMONY OF THE HOUSEMAID.

The Situation in Ireland Becoming More Alarming—The Programme of Gladstone—An Indignation Meeting Called—Etc.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—In the Campbell divorce case to-day Finlay, for the defense, continued the presentation of Lord Colin Campbell's case. If Lady Campbell had believed, the lawyer argued, that her husband had communicated a malady to her, she would have written to him, but this she had never done.

The judge, interrupting, said that the argument must be confined entirely to the cruelty alleged in the petition as one of the grounds for divorce, and as such cruelty had been proved in a former trial at which the plaintiff had obtained a decree of separation on that ground alone, he must refuse to allow the allegation to be contested, and should direct the jury to find that the defendant had given to plaintiff some kind of disease.

Finlay, resuming, said all of the plaintiff's allegations in her petition were false and had been [illegible], and had since been withdrawn, except one charge, the truth or falsity of which could be known only to Lady Campbell herself. The defense, however, had evidence that would shed a flood of light upon Lady Colin's proceedings in Paris. In regard to that charge allowance must be made, counsel contended, for Lord Colin's action in urging the Paris police to arrest his wife and lock her up in the prostitutes' prison, because at that time the defendant believed his wife was living there in adultery with the Duke of Marlborough.

REPEATED ACTS OF INFIDELITY.

Lady Campbell's maid would be called, and would prove that on more than one occasion, while plaintiff was living alone, her couch at Leigh court was occupied by more than one person. A servant and two independent witnesses would testify that plaintiff had committed acts of infidelity in the hotel. Dr. Bird and Lady Campbell, at one time, were constantly together, and whenever he called plaintiff used to give orders that she was not to be disturbed during his presence. Once a cabman saw Dr. Bird and Lady Campbell, while returning from a charitable concert in the East End, caressing each other in the cab. On this occasion they were driven to Dr. Bird's house and both went in. The cabman remained outside, and Lady Campbell tarried so long that he drove away. It would also be shown that when Dr. Bird visited Lady Campbell professionally he would remain for hours at her bedside in a darkened room.

Referring to Chief Shaw of the London fire brigade, Finlay said Lady Campbell met the chief in an unfurnished drawing room in Cadogan place in 1881, and remained with him an hour, and during [illegible] was with him alone in a dining room under conditions which would convince the jury that plaintiff and Chief Shaw were guilty of wrong doing.

HER RELATIONS WITH A DUKE.

Defendant's counsel continued: Lady Campbell had written to the Duke of Marlborough as "Dear George." He had taken her home at 1 o'clock in the morning, gone up stairs with her and remained twenty minutes. On one occasion, when he came to tea, the servant that took tea up to Lady Campbell found the drawing-room door locked, and a little later found it unlocked, and saw that Lady Campbell's hair was disarranged, her face flushed, and the furniture out of place. On these occasions, counsel continued, plaintiff had doubtlessly misbehaved.

The evidence connecting Lady Campbell with Gen. Buller largely referred to the length of time he remained when he called upon plaintiff. Two shameless women had concocted the story of Lord Colin's criminal intimacy with his wife's maid, Mary Watson. The defense would produce two surgeons who would swear that Mary Watson was virgo intacta, and that therefore it was impossible that defendant could have been guilty of adultery with her.

At this point Mr. Finlay denounced with great excitement and passion what he called "the infamous fraud and perjury and shameless conduct of Lady Miles and Lady Colin Campbell." [Sensation.] He accused Lady Miles of prostituting her prayer book by inscribing therein dates of Lord Colin's alleged wrong doings, for the purpose of accumulating data upon which to found the present suit.

Two physicians were called. Both testified that they had examined Mary Watson and had found her [illegible]. Neither, however, on cross-examination could swear that an attempt to assault the girl had not been made.

THE HOUSEMAID'S TESTIMONY.

Mary Watson herself was then sworn. She is a handsome girl. She testified that she was housemaid for Lord Colin Campbell from 1881 till 1884. She denied all of Lady Miles's testimony concerning the alleged intimacy between witness and Lord Colin. Lady Colin's maid used to post letters for her mistress, and witness often saw the names of the Duke of Marlborough and Chief Shaw on the envelopes. When the Duke of Marlborough called he used to ring the servant's bell. Witness once showed the Duke into the dining room when he called, because her mistress was with Lord Colin in his bedroom. Witness went up and called Lady Colin out, saying the cook wanted to see her. When Lady Colin came out witness told her it was the duke, and not the cook, and Lady Colin said: "Thank you, Mary." [Laughter.]

Lady Colin, witness continued, used to receive Capt. Shaw alone. Dr. Bird, on one occasion, took tea with Lady Colin before going with her to a concert. When the carriage arrived witness went to announce it to Lady Colin, and found that she and Dr. Bird had gone to Lady Colin's bedroom. Lady Colin came to the door, saying as she did so, "Keep your hand on that dose, doctor."

Being cross examined, witness said she saw no dose when Dr. Bird received the injunction to keep his hand on the dose. When asked if she had ever seen any impropriety on the part of Lady Colin, witness replied that she never had. Witness admitted having written letters to Lord Colin, but asserted that she had never signed them "Your affectionate Mary," but simply "Mary." The case then adjourned.

THE IRISH CRISIS.

THE OPINION OF O'BRIEN.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—In an interview to-day Mr. O'Brien said he was of the opinion that the executives would defeat themselves in trying to stem the tide of opinion in favor of reduction of rents, even Gen. Buller having declared in favor of a procedure test. The government, he said, were supporting bankrupt landlords whose estates were so deeply involved that it was impossible for them to meet their engagements unless they exacted full rents. He feared the government's action would lead to troublous times, but he was confident that the English people would see the justice of the claims of the Irish peasantry, and that the repressive policy would speedily produce a revulsion of feeling in England against the authors of that policy.

MOONLIGHTERS UNDER ARREST.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Fifty prisoners, charged with being implicated in "moonlighting" in Kerry and Clare, arrived to-day at Cork, escorted by a large force of soldiers. They will be tried at the Munster assizes. Upon their arrival at the railway station at Cork the alleged "moonlighters" received an ovation from a great crowd that had assembled there. Commoner O'Brien called for cheers for the prisoners, and they were given with a will.

Commoner Redmond, speaking in Dublin to-night, said that if one hair of Dillon's or O'Brien's head was injured the Irish people would know how to avenge themselves for the outrage.

GLADSTONE'S PROGRAMME.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Gladstone declines every request to speak until parliament has reassembled. He has sent letters to several of his late colleagues stating his programme for the coming session. He approves an immediate challenge to the government to state its Irish policy in the debate on the address, although he expects that the [illegible] will maintain their adhesion to the government. Afterward he will assist in effective settlement of the procedure question.

AN INDIGNATION MEETING CALLED.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Lord Mayor Sullivan has summoned a meeting of citizens of Dublin to assemble next Friday, to protest against "the government's tyranny towards the Irish National League."

[illegible] Dillon will defend himself in the case [illegible] against him by the government. The Right Hon. Hugh Holmes, attorney general of Ireland, and John G. Gibson, solicitor general, will [illegible] the prosecution against Dillon.

HICKS-BEACH AT WORK.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chief secretary for Ireland, is formulating a scheme for reform of the Irish administration. He has offered the post of under-secretary to Gen. Buller, and the latter has accepted.

O'BRIEN TO BE ARRESTED.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The Standard's Dublin correspondent says a warrant will be issued for the arrest of O'Brien.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach has held a conference with the magistrates from all parts of south and west Ireland.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

[illegible] TO THE CZAR'S CANDIDATE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The Tribune's London cable says: The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends the following dispatch: The statement proceeding from Russian sources that all the powers have accepted the candidacy of Prince Nicholas of Mingrelia, and that consequently the Bulgarian question is on the eve of settlement, does not entirely correspond with the facts of the situation. The czar's new protégé is scarcely less obnoxious to the powers than to the Bulgarians themselves, as Russia has just had opportunity of ascertaining. The English government has, I believe, given Russia to understand that the election of a prince being the affair of the sobranje, they did not feel called upon to express an opinion on the merits of any candidate before the election. Russia may have reasons of her own for surmising that England will not systematically oppose the candidacy of Prince Nicholas of Mingrelia. The Austrian government has intimated that if the Mingrelian prince were elected by the sobranje it would raise no objection, but would leave the Bulgarians to follow their own inclinations in the matter, without seeking to influence them one way or the other. The apparently weak position taken in the reply of Austria on this occasion is due to an apprehension of seeing a less acceptable candidate than Prince Nicholas of Mingrelia put forward by Russia, such, for instance, as the Prince of Montenegro or Prince Karageorgevitch.

A Bulgarian deputation is expected at Pesth this week, the chief object of its mission being to sound the European governments with regard to the choice of a prince, and to inform them of the profound antipathy entertained in Bulgaria toward Prince Nicholas.

BISMARCK AS A PEACEMAKER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Thomas Power O'Connor cables from London to the Star: Prince Bismarck, with the concurrence of England and Italy, is arranging a basis for an agreement between Russia and Austria on the Bulgarian question. A memorandum embodying his recommendations has been submitted to both powers. It is expected the czar will refer the whole matter to the war council at St. Petersburg to discuss and finally decide. The situation generally is unchanged. The friends of peace are encouraged by the attitude of Germany to hope that war may be averted for the present.

[illegible] A NEW REBELLION.

BUCHAREST, Nov. 29.—At a meeting here yesterday of the leaders of the Bulgarian [illegible] party, headed by Zankoff, it was decided that a new rebellion should be attempted in Bulgaria. The meeting was held at the hotel Kiraly, and was participated in by Schekoff [illegible]. Among the [illegible] present were Benderoff, [illegible] and other officers who had been dismissed from the Bulgarian service because of their connection with the recent uprising. Schekoff [illegible] that the Russian consul at Rustchuk would afford the [illegible] protection in the event of failure in their undertaking.

GEN. KAULBARS.

ODESSA, Nov. 29.—Gen. Kaulbars has arrived here and has proceeded to St. Petersburg.

ENGLAND.

THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—At the British foreign office [illegible] are entertained whether President Cleveland will be in a position to announce in his coming message a solution of the fishery dispute. No progress is being made toward a settlement. Lord Iddesleigh is absorbed in the eastern question and has completely consigned to Minister West [illegible] relations with the United States. The attitude of the Canadian government is not favorable to settlement.

The extradition treaty has been definitely settled, upon the exact lines of the convention drafted by Minister Phelps and Lord Rosebery. Reports that amendments have been made by Canada are incorrect.

A CONSERVATIVE ELECTED.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Dr. Robertson, conservative, has been elected to the commons to fill the vacancy in the Brighton district. The doctor is blind. He had no opposition.

AUSTRALIA.

MASSACRED BY NATIVES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—The steamer Australia, which arrived last night from the South Pacific, brings news of the seizure on October 30, at Cooktown, N. S. W., by natives, of the pearl fishing vessel [illegible], and the massacre of the captain and crew of eight. The natives then plundered the vessel and set her on fire.

NINE YOUTHS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Nov. 29.—Nine youths have been sentenced to death here for committing an outrage on a 16 year-old servant-girl.

FRANCE.

A CLOSE SHAVE FOR THE MINISTRY.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—In the debate in the chamber of deputies to-day on the Tonquin credit Prime Minister de Freycinet appealed to the patriotism of the members, asking them to give an unanimous vote in order to show foreigners that the French settlement in Tonquin had a solid foundation. The total credit was voted, 27[illegible] against 2[illegible]. The Tunis credit was also passed.

BURMAH.

AN ENCOUNTER WITH NATIVES.

RANGOON, Nov. 29.—British troops in Burmah, in a recent encounter with the forces of [illegible], killed thirteen of his followers without losing a soldier, but three of the British troops were wounded.

CHINA.

THE CITY OF PEKIN [illegible] ANOTHER STEAMER.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A dispatch from Hong Kong to-day says that the French steamer Saghalien at Shanghai for Marseilles, has been cut to the water's edge by the Pacific Mail steamer City of Pekin.

SPAIN.

TO IMPROVE THE NAVY.

MADRID, Nov. 29.—Congress has unanimously voted an extra credit of $40,000,000 to improve the navy. The principal part will be devoted to the purchase of torpedo boats and cruisers.

ITALY.

A CALL FOR CATHOLIC PAPERS.

ROME, Nov. 29.—The pope has invited editors of Catholic papers throughout the world to send their publications regularly to the press office of the Vatican.

SERVIA.

CHOLERA AT BELGRADE.

BELGRADE, Nov. 29.—During the past week there have been fifty cases of cholera and ten deaths in the infantry barracks here.

SALEM NOTES.

SALEM, Nov. 29.

Mr. E. L. Bristow has resigned his position as city editor of the Daily Talk.

Mrs. Lena McCoy, nee Williams, of New Tacoma, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Breyman.

The H. A. C. band will give a grand musical soiree at Reed's opera house on Friday evening next, which promises to be well attended.

The following ticket is strongly talked of by prominent democrats for the forthcoming city election: For mayor, W. J. Herren; recorder, Jonathan O'Donald; marshal, E. J. Bristow. W. H. Holmes and W. M. Ramsey are also mentioned in connection with the mayoralty.

Miss Fanny Odenell, who is visiting the Misses Breyman of this city, was agreeably surprised on Friday evening by an impromptu visit from a number of her Salem friends, who took them unawares. The occasion was none the less pleasant on that account, however, and the evening proved most enjoyable to all present.

About seventy-five young people gathered at the asylum on Friday evening last to pay their respects to Miss Hannah Joseph, the accomplished daughter of the superintendent, and her guests, the Misses Hawthorne, of East Portland. Music, dancing, games and refreshments added their charms, and the hours sped only too quickly to the delighted guests.

At the regular meeting of the Alka-Hesperian society held in their hall on Friday evening last the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing term: President, John Peebles; vice-president, W. C. Anderson; secretary, Dan W. Bass; assistant secretary, Will Hetzler; treasurer, Joseph Albert; librarian, W. F. S. Dillon; censor, W. M. Kaiser; sergeant-at-arms, M. C. Starr.

The case of the state of Oregon vs. W. W. Saunders, on appeal from Linn county, will come up for a hearing before the supreme court on the 6th of December. The counsel for the state are Hon. George W. Belt, Prosecuting Attorney George E. Chamberlain, L. Flinn, Capt. N. B. Humphrey and J. J. Whitney. The defendant and appellant will be represented by Hon. John Burnett, James K. Weatherford, D. R. N. Blackburn, O. H. Irvine, George Bowen, C. E. Wolverton and W. R. Bilyeu.

The democrats held their city primaries on Saturday evening last, with the following result: First ward, councilman, A. B. Muir. Delegates to the city convention, P. H. D'Arcy, Dr. W. D. Jeffries, A. B. Muir, R. N. Hayden and T. B. Wait. Second ward, councilman, J. J. Shaw. Delegates, W. E. McAfee, J. J. Dugan and J. D. Shaw. Third ward, councilman, long term, A. N. Bush; short term, W. F. Lemon. Delegates, A. N. Bush, Seth C. Wade, J. G. Fontaine. Fourth ward, councilman, C. S. Woodworth. Delegates, G. M. Thompson, Dan W. Bass, F. J. Humason. The city convention will meet at Reed's opera house to-morrow, Tuesday, evening.

CARS WANTED TILL 11 O'CLOCK.

PORTLAND, Nov. 29.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Now that the city authorities will not allow the stoppage of street cars on first crossings, cannot the same authorities compel the lines to run cars up to 11 o'clock? Their charters call for running up to that hour, and if the authorities would now do the public a favor the act would be appreciated. Passengers are often compelled to return across a street under enforcement of the crossing ordinance, and it seems no more than justice that they be given an opportunity to ride home during hours the lines have agreed to run.

PACIFIC COAST.

The Boom in Mining Stocks at San Francisco.

DEMPSEY COMING TO PORTLAND.

Fatal Accident at Yaquina City—No Trouble at Port Blakeley—A Cable to be Laid from Australia to the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—The excitement in the mining stock boards continued to-day, with slightly advanced prices but fewer sales, holders not being desirous of selling. The greatest rise was in Best & Belcher, which closed on Saturday at $12.75. It opened to-day at $15, and then gradually [illegible] and closed at $16.75. Ophir took a considerable rise. From its closing price of $12.50 on Saturday it jumped to $1[illegible] at the opening of the board to-day. At the midday session it advanced to $1[illegible], and went back at the close to $15. The greatest excitement and fluctuations, however, prevailed in Consolidated California & Virginia. It closed on Saturday at $[illegible]. It opened at the same figures this morning, declined to $[illegible] and then advanced to $[illegible] at the midday session, and closed [illegible].

[illegible] RAILROAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—The recent purchase of the South Pacific Coast railroad by the Southern Pacific company will undoubtedly prove to be [illegible] Oakland. It is now stated that it is the intention of the Southern Pacific company to ultimately run ferry trips between this city and Oakland and Alameda, at intervals of fifteen minutes during certain hours of the day, instead of half hour intervals, as heretofore. It is also intended to consolidate the street railroad systems of San Francisco and Oakland and the ferry systems, so that through transfers from Oakland points to points in San Francisco, including [illegible] will be given.

[illegible] MURDER CASE.

The trial of George D. Gardner, for the murder of [illegible], on the 10th of August last, came up before Judge Van Fleet, of Sacramento, to-day, who is to try the case, at the request of Judge Wilson. The attorney for defendant, H. E. Highton, asked the court for a continuance until Wednesday of next week, when he would be finished with the Pratt forgery case, in which he was attorney for Pratt. The Judge, however, ordered the case continued until Monday next, remarking that if defendant's counsel is not ready to proceed with the case that day defendant must secure other counsel.

A SEARCH FOR CONTRABAND OPIUM.

A deputy surveyor of the port accompanied by a posse of custom house officers, boarded the revenue cutter Richard Rush yesterday, and the vessel steamed out to sea. The object of the movement is to intercept the steamship Rio de Janeiro, which is due from Hong Kong, and which is believed to have a large quantity of contraband opium on board.

SAILED FOR KODIAK.

Mr. Washburne, newly appointed agent of the Alaska Commercial company, to succeed McIntyre, who was murdered at Kodiak, Alaska, went up to Kodiak yesterday, by the steamer Dora, to assume the duties of his position. He will make a thorough investigation of the murder and send a full report of it by the Dora upon the steamer's return.

DEAD AT LAST.

P. J. Walrath, a wood turner, who, on the 18th instant, met with an accident by which a piece of steel was driven through his nose an inch and a half into the brain, died yesterday from its effects. The case was a most remarkable one, from the fact that the wound was of such a nature as would ordinarily cause instantaneous death.

DEMPSEY WILL BE HERE.

Before leaving here for Portland yesterday, Charles E. Davis made a contract with Jack Dempsey, engaging the latter to travel with his company of pugilists. Dempsey, with Burke, will exhibit at Portland, Helena, Butte City, Denver, Cheyenne and other cities, on the way to Chicago.

SUICIDE AT SACRAMENTO.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 29.—A hat and coat were found under the J street wharf this morning. A note pinned to the hat showed that J. R. Smith, 27 years old, was owner of the articles, and had committed suicide yesterday. The writer stated that he suicided because he was without money, friends and work.

STATE DISPATCHES.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT YAQUINA CITY.

CORVALLIS, Nov. 29.—Dr. Kendall, of Buena Vista, met with a fatal accident at Yaquina City, by stepping off the railroad track on the company's dock, falling a distance of nine feet down a stairway and lighting upon his head. Drs. Lee and [illegible] were called and did all that medical aid could do, but he never regained consciousness and expired Saturday night at 6 o'clock. His son was telegraphed for and went over and brought his father's remains through here to-day, en route to his home for burial. Deceased was on his way to San Francisco.

SALEM REPUBLICAN TICKET.

SALEM, Nov. 29.—The republican city convention this evening nominated the following ticket: For mayor, W. W. Skinner; recorder, J. H. Strickler; marshal, James H. Ross; treasurer, W. T. Bell.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

NO TROUBLE AT PORT BLAKELEY.

SEATTLE, Nov. 29.—Company D returned to Seattle this afternoon, no opposition having been made to the operations of the Port Blakeley mill. The [illegible] property is now under protection of a force of deputies organized by Sheriff Comstock, and no trouble is apprehended.

THE PACIFIC CABLE SCHEME.

Organization of a Company to Lay a Line from Brisbane to Vancouver, B. C.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—Advices from New Zealand state that a company has been organized to construct a Pacific cable, to cost $10,000,000, as follows: From Brisbane or some port in New South Wales to North cape, New Zealand, 1,100 knots; to the Fiji islands, 1,240 knots; to Fanning island, 2,270 knots; to the Sandwich Islands, 1,260 knots; to Vancouver island, [illegible] knots; across the island and straits of Georgia to Vancouver City, on the mainland, the terminus of the Canadian Pacific railway, [illegible]. An annual subsidy of half a million dollars is expected to be obtained from the colonial and imperial governments jointly.

CONFIRMATION FROM OTTAWA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—An Ottawa, Ont., special to the Post says: It is said in well informed circles that Sanford Fleming's scheme of a Pacific-Australian cable will at once assume tangible form, and that the new company who are to carry out the work will be incorporated during the coming session of parliament. Among those mentioned as directors and heavy shareholders are Sir George Stephen, Baronet; Sir John Macdonald, A. Smith, Erastus Wiman, Sanford Fleming and leading English financiers. The capital stock is to be fixed at $10,000,000. It is proposed to raise $5,000,000 in [illegible] shares, and $5,000,000 in 3 per cent. stock, secured by an imperial-colonial guarantee dividend, as follows: Canada $75,000, Australia [illegible], and Great Britain $[illegible]. It is proposed to fix a rate from London to Vancouver island of twelve cents per word, and four shillings per word from England to Australia, the press rate to be one-fourth of the regular rate.

PRESS PITH.

If [illegible] newspapers tell the truth, Atlanta under prohibition has become a city of [illegible].—[illegible] Courier.

A leading prohibitionist of Atlanta, Ga., was drowned the other day in his own well. This ought to teach all prohibitionists the danger in their extreme theories.—Boston Post.

Count de Lesseps thinks that a man ought to live a hundred years. There are a good many other things that he ought to have and do, but somehow they fail to materialize.—Chicago News.

English milliners are said to have discovered a way of making bonnets of tissue paper so that the bonnet itself will not cost over 10 cents, the remaining $20 going for trimming, as usual.—Omaha Herald.

Mrs. Parsons the anarchist, says that when in Louisville she could rent a hall in which to speak, she addressed an assemblage standing on a beer keg. That is a position in which anarchists generally feel very much at home.—Boston Post.

The question of "How many yards make a foot?" was sprung on a schoolteachers' convention in Ohio recently, and thirty-four teachers handed in their answers—"three" with the proud consciousness of having knocked the spots off of old mathematics in the first round.—Detroit Free Press.

A bedraggled looking German woman sold baskets on the west side yesterday. Coming to one back door with a willow specimen as big as herself, she was told that nothing in her line was wanted, whereupon she asked, "Has another lady been peddling baskets around here to day?"—Buffalo Express.

"Well, Bascomb, how is your married life. You used to call your wife a daisy. Do you still keep up the endearing title?" "No, George. I've found another sweet name for her. She's very wakeful at night, and gives me the awfulest curtain lectures." "Ah, indeed! And what do you call her now?" "The night-blooming serious."—Philadelphia Call.

Instantly Relieved.

Mrs. A[illegible] Lacour, of New Orleans, La., writes: "I have a son who has been sick for two years; he has been attended by our leading physicians, but all to no purpose. This morning he had his usual spell of coughing, and was so greatly prostrated in consequence, that death seemed imminent. We had in the house a bottle of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, purchased by my husband, who noticed your advertisement. We administered it, and he was instantly relieved."

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, TUESDAY, NOV. 30 1886.

GREAT EMBARRASSMENT.

The cases of Benton and Stone give the mugwump papers a great deal of trouble. For example this editorial comment appeared in the New York Times just before Stone's application for reinstatement appeared

The enemies of the president in his own party and in the other will watch with great interest his course in reference to United States District Attorney Stone, of Pennsylvania who has written a letter copied after Mr Benton's partly perhaps in the hope that he may be restored to office but not improbably with a purpose also, to put the president in an embarrassing position since Mr Stone is a republican and the political activity which led to his suspension was for the account of his own party If the president pursues in this case the simple and just rule which seems to have guided his action in the case of Mr Benton he will escape all embarrassment and even the republican majority in the senate will be unable to make any capital out of the affair If District Attorney Stone did not neglect the duties of his office, and if his partisan labors did not transcend the bounds laid down by the president in his letter to Mr Benton, the fact that he is a republican should make no difference in the treatment of his case.

ADMISSION OF WASHINGTON

Republicans in congress cannot afford to oppose the admission of Washington territory on the ground that the immediate result would be the sending of two democratic senators to that body. In the legislature recently elected there appears to be one democratic majority on joint ballot, and if the territory were admitted at once this body would probably elect senators as the last legislature elected in Oregon under territorial conditions did, but the terms would not be long, and the people would soon have an opportunity of deciding on party grounds whether they wanted to be represented by republicans or democrats. This fact, and the contest for the electoral vote of the state, would quickly restore party lines to normal political conditions, and would eliminate, or subordinate to larger questions, the local issues of temporary interest which have been engaging the attention of the people of Washington If republicans couldn't win then they would have no reason to complain. THE OREGONIAN does not doubt that Washington would go republican in the presidential election by several thousand majority, or that the next legislature would be very strongly republican. But whether this would prove true or not, Washington ought at once to be erected into a state, and we hope the house will pass without delay the admission bill that has already passed the senate.

LOSSES BY STRIKES

It is asserted by Chicago papers that the loss in wages suffered by the men who went out on the packers' strike in that city was not less than $500,000, and yet they were idle only two weeks. This great sum, the Inter-Ocean says, "would have started two national banks, or built 500 cottages, or established a co-operative packing house." Had the workmen secured to themselves any real advantage from the strike, this sum might well have been sacrificed for it. But they secured nothing The strike was an ill advised effort to support a claim that was wholly inadmissible. The proprietors could not grant the eight hour demand

Members of the labor associations, in many instances, find that under the system pursued by their leaders and managers the organization becomes an instrument of injury and oppression Thus, the Chicago Journal says "Last June a working man of Chicago, who was satisfied with his work, his wages and his employer, was resolute in keeping out of one of the labor organizations. Failing to make him yield, a systematic persecution was commenced upon his children For their sakes he joined the Knights of Labor The first week he was assessed half his week's wages to support a strike, elsewhere, of men of whom he knew nothing He is a slave and he knows it, and he realizes, as many men now do, and more are coming to realize, that the most cruel of all tyrants is a mob controlled by selfish, narrow minded, ignorant men."

While it is entirely right and proper, and in many instances even necessary, for labor to combine and associate for protection of its own interests against unjust exactions, nevertheless workmen do themselves great injury when they allow these combinations to take away their privileges as free men. No man can surrender his individuality without doing himself the greatest possible injury and wrong Men have a right to strike whenever they see fit. There is no dispute about that. But when the strike is based on demands that are not reasonable, as the late strike of the packers at Chicago was, and when it is ordered as that strike was by men who lack judgment in so grave a matter and ought never to be trusted a power so important, the mischief is great. The tendency of the thoughtless and impetuous men is always to the hasty use of extreme measures The strike can be useful only as an extreme remedy for positive wrongs Used as a weapon to enforce demands that are not reasonable, it will always fail and workingmen therefore cannot be too careful, for their own sakes into whose hands they place this power

THE PROPOSED STEAMBOAT RAILWAY

In his remarks before the board of trade last Saturday, Senator Dolph spoke at some length in favor of the project for a steamboat railway at the Dalles of the Columbia. He said truly that the proposed improvement at the Dalles was the counterpart of the improvement at the Cascades, that they should have "been commenced at the same time carried on together and completed, if possible, at the same time" While this view of the case is by no means new it is only just now [illegible] to be recognized generally [illegible] small [illegible] at the Dalles remain [illegible] to accomplish the main body of the [illegible] no relief

In the far away [illegible], no doubt there will be a canal [illegible] But [illegible] years and cost many millions of dollars to make it. In the meantime the country [illegible] is the means of transporting its products to the ocean It has been proposed, as the readers of THE OREGONIAN well know, to make a portage railroad which will pick up steamboats bodily and carry them inland around the obstructions The plan is precisely like that of Capt. Eads for an Isthmus ship railway, with the exception that it is on a small scale and proposes the expenditure of hundreds where the Eads scheme calls for thousands Engineers consider it entirely practicable, and practical transportation men declare that it would save to the producers of the Columbia river basin in the matter of freights, $1,000,000 the first year and eventually ten times that sum per annum

The Columbia Waterway convention the Portland board of trade, and all other organized bodies that have considered the matter have pronounced in favor of this plan of improvement, willing to accept it instead of the more elaborate and costly work originally proposed in consideration of the immediate advantages to be gained Senator Dolph approves of this plan most cordially. He has examined the plans and models of the proposed Eads railway with special reference to the smaller work here and is convinced that practically, there are no engineering obstacles in the way

The cost of the proposed work, it is estimated, will be between thirteen and fourteen hundred thousand dollars, and this amount will have to come in one or two general appropriations To postpone the work from year to year would be to double or treble its cost. Senator Dorman, chairman of the senate committee on appropriations, who was in Oregon last summer, declared that he would work for the project in every possible way, and that he was in favor of appropriating the money in a lump. His interest in the plan is largely experimental. The assistance of Senator Gorman will be very valuable, and we are likely to have still more powerful help from the supporters of the Eads bill, who would like to see this work accomplished as a means of showing what can be done at the Isthmus If an earnest push is made before congress for the money there is a chance to secure it. The situation is favorable, and the utmost effort should be made during the coming session of congress.

OUR REVIEW OF MINES

On Thursday next THE OREGONIAN will publish the sixth chapter of its elaborate and exhaustive review of the gold and silver mines and mining prospects of the Northwest This chapter will be one of the most interesting and important of the series, as it will be devoted to the mines of Coeur d'Alene To give an idea of the scope of the article we present the following summary

CHAPTER VI THE CŒUR D'ALENE MINES—Their locality described—Their surroundings—Navigable streams Anthony—Roads Discovery of gold Pritchard—The town of Murray—Placer claims—Work accomplished—Mining enterprises—The old wash mining ditches—Gold quartz veins—The Idaho Company, The Mother lode Golden Chest Golden King and other mines Character of the quartz veins—The great silver lead veins—General description—The Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines The town of Wardner—Its rapid growth—Theories of vein formation—Extent of the lodes—The Companies—The Montana gentlemen—The Concentrator—Hunter mine and other claims—Vast deposits of rich ore—Transportation of ores—Railroad communication to be established General conclusions as to the value of the mines—Cœur d'Alene the coming camp

Here, indeed, is richness! The Louisville Courier-Journal, the great democratic paper of the South, entreats Mr Blaine to declare against civil service reform and, in this behalf, it thus addresses him

You beat the force bill conspiracy and you beat the third term conspiracy and if you lend the great popularity of your name and the weight of your influence to beat this revolutionary scheme of political pharisaism and benevolent milksoppery you will deserve well of your country and will be remembered in the world to come even though you may never be president of the United States

It may be half suspected that Mr Blaine would rather be president than be right on this question But, what a scream against Grover Cleveland, to come from a great democratic organ, is this appeal to James Blaine!

Benton was reinstated because he is a democrat Stone was not reinstated because he is a republican This is defensible on the ground that to the victors belong the spoils but presented as civil service reform it grows tiresome to the public.

Democrats are afraid they are going to lose the senator in Indiana, and ex Senator McDonald intimates that for a remedy his party may try the expedient of breaking a quorum in the legislature

A CATHOLIC'S REPLY

The Position of the Church in Relation to the State Briefly Discussed

PORTLAND Nov [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN of the 28th has taken the action of the church authorities in the matter [illegible] as the pretext for a leading editorial in which [illegible] makes the following statements [illegible] man can be an absolutely good [illegible] of the church and be at the same time an absolutely good loyal citizen of the United States [illegible] that the teaching and philosophy of the Catholic church is to the effect that no [illegible] Catholic can cordially be in favor of a [illegible] democratic form of government whatever may be his practical [illegible] of these two hostile views of the supreme allegiance of the citizen and other statements to the same effect

The direct inference from these general statements is plain It puts the whole body of our Catholic citizens in the wrong makes them worse than aliens or [illegible] makes them the object of suspicion and animosity and encourages bigotry and bad feeling in the community in which the paper circulates It is hard for good Catholics whose patriotism and loyalty have stood every test since the foundation of this republic in which they took a prominent part to bear this unjust criticism patiently but they are accustomed to be misunderstood and misrepresented in your journal In order to set our Catholic fellow citizens right before this community and to [illegible] contradiction to these vicious statements I beg your indulgence to notice them briefly I will not consider the case of Coffey nor the many other erroneous inferences and deductions in the article reflecting on our Catholic citizens I will dismiss the quotations purported to be made from pastoral letters and the various individuals named The writer has evidently copied them freely from an irresponsible and fanatical sheet published at Washington D C called the American Ireland and they are thoroughly untenable The sole purpose and aim of that journal is to inaugurate a war of persecution against the Catholic religion in this country a very uncharitable piece of business indeed It seems strange that any writer could enter into this subject without [illegible] both sides of the question [illegible] having given one side of the question [illegible] matter and to the school question which [illegible] as de from this discussion

Is it true then that no Catholic can be [illegible] and obedient child of the church and be at the same time an absolutely good [illegible] of the United States [illegible] and it never was But the opposite of this is true The obedience of Catholic [illegible] is a positive precept of religion and it is certain that they are bound in their allegiance to the state by every bond natural and supernatural [illegible] the Catholic [illegible] the form of government monarchical or republican matters not The civil allegiance of Catholics is as undivided as that of all Christians and of all men who recognize a divine or natural moral law The civil allegiance of no man is unlimited [illegible]

Cardinal Manning, in his reply to [illegible] pamphlet entitled The Vatican Decrees in their Bearing on Civil Allegiance says [illegible] Every man is [illegible] human and divine The child is under the authority of its parents [illegible] the subject is under the authority of natural or revealed religion Unless we claim infallibility for the state its acts must be liable to revision and to resistance by natural conscience An unlimited [illegible] of [illegible]

law is its own [illegible] is said Catholics put their conscience in the hands of their priests or bishops and that their moral and mental freedom is in the hands of another [illegible] the authority of an [illegible] to decide [illegible] to the civil state than the Catholic doctrine [illegible] If any individual conscience may [illegible] civil obedience then almost all men [illegible] or wrath and not for conscience sake [illegible] almost every civilized country may be traced to [illegible] THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN [illegible] that modern democracy is the outcome of the reformation He might be more truthful to say [illegible] An anarchist is one who carries [illegible] its logical limits the ultimate right of [illegible] to the law upon the dictates of his own conscience

According to the doctrine of the Catholic church [illegible] individual conscience are [illegible] not only against external coercion but against [illegible] and is guided in every crisis by the greatest system of ethical legislation the world has ever seen—the canon law and the moral theology of the Catholic church It would carry this argument to too great length to inquire the particular nature of the authority of the church in matters spiritual Let it suffice to quote some of the Catholic authorities on this question Cardinal [illegible] says that in things temporal and in regard to the temporal end of government the church has no power in civil society Suarez and [illegible] says that the opinion which [illegible] direct temporal power over all the [illegible] If such a case could be imagined as [illegible] declaring war against this [illegible] the Catholic [illegible] country would be bound [illegible] to all their powers in resisting him This is briefly [illegible] of Catholics in their relation to the [illegible]

In conclusion it may be said that the whole spirit and tendency of Catholic institutions is democratic From the pope down those who are in authority in the church are chosen from the people More than once has it happened that the son of the lowly swineherd has worn the tiara and become clothed with an authority which the whole Christian world at one time believed to be the highest judicial tribunal and the source of its civil order and stability.

ONE MORE LETTER.

OREGON CITY No [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Allow me to express through the columns of your valuable paper my appreciation of the article published in your issue of the 16th inst. under the head of A very Sensible Letter written by Mr Thomas Buckman of New Era.

In the first place Mr B makes a true supposition that the people will agree with him when he says

Were there none to patronize the saloons there would be no need of legislation to regulate them All such statements will meet with no controversy if nothing more averse to the facts is produced but when we come to examine further we find Mr B looking after the drunkard and not the drunkard maker He also says when speaking of the drunkards They will be just what they are Now if such a state of things exist, with what success will our efforts meet which have been put forth to save the inebriate?

Undoubtedly the position which Mr. B takes upon this question dates back to the time when this moral revolution commenced as we find in those days the people were afraid to come out and make [illegible] plain statements that prohibition would be successful for no practical proof had yet been given But at this day and age there is no excuse [illegible] of knowledge and ability to say

Were I assured that it would be made to work successfully [illegible] In Mr B's letter we find these statements We are working at the whisky too much and not enough at the drinker We leave the only crime there is in the matter (that is of drinking and becoming drunk) almost [illegible] Now if these statements be true it would be well for some worthy law maker to repeal the laws that will cause the man who sells liquor to the Indians to be arrested imprisoned and fined

Probably it would be well to inquire [illegible] validity of the former assertion by taking up [illegible] point of law which pertains to peace and order Does the government of the United States say to its subjects Do not use oleomargarine or does it say to the manufacturer of that article You must stop the manufacture of an article [illegible] which destroys the health of my people Does not the law of Oregon say to the thief You must not steal? never stopping to think what a [illegible] craving the thief has for that business for it [illegible] considered a duty which a state owes to its people to preserve order and subject crime

Mr B makes the following assertions Were we to stop with the drunken man and try to ascertain why he became drunk instead of how he got the liquor, why he rendered himself an unsafe member of society instead of how he happened to find a saloon why he of his own free will took so much that he became crazy instead of how he happened to find it we would be striking more at the root of the matter Oh man of reason is it rational to think that a reformer ever stopped and asked a drunkard in this nineteenth century how he got the liquor or how he happened to find a saloon when we know that a saloon is found on almost every street corner and in every tavern? We might make a reasonable comparison with Mr B's mode of dealing with the drunk man when he tries to ascertain why he became drunk why he rendered himself an unsafe member of society and why he of his own free will took so much that he became crazy If there was a deep ditch in the public highway and some man was unfortunate enough to fall therein would our modern reformer say Poor fellow and try to ascertain why he of his own free will got into the ditch Would he pull the unfortunate man out and leave the ditch unfilled or uncovered for another victim? No most emphatically he would notify the proper officers and demand immediate repairs Now is it no more reasonable to ask of a government to fill up a hole into which the young are falling continually? Let the American people arise and may the breath of justice breathe upon them for we are as a city set on a hill and cannot be hid

Is it reasonable to think after so long a trial of prohibition and the proof of the late elections the gains which have been shown up by official reports and various other evidences that people would vote with many misgivings about its being the best move to make? It is an acknowledged fact that individual effort is required to start any move reform but while individuals are putting forth their endeavor [illegible] right that the government should legalize an illegal business by giving its sanction and then say to its people Prohibition won't work [illegible]

If our temperance friends who still remain with the old parties would like to free their minds of [illegible] question which they are earnestly discussing, let them walk up to the polls the next election and vote prohibition for it is in politics and will stay there until we are free—free indeed How proud we will be when it can be said of America that she has fought and gained the political and moral revolutions of the age

"Facts are stubborn things" and "Figures don't lie." These are gray-haired proverbs, but will apply to many things relating to everyday routine business. In saying a few words to the public and our customers, we wish to impress upon them these facts, to wit: That we are now carrying a complete line of Fall and Winter Suits for the aged, the man of mature years, down to the inevitable small boy. In OVERCOATS we can accommodate all sizes at all prices, and here we invite special attention, as this year's stock is surpassingly fine and appropriate to the season. In Hats and Caps we aim to supply all wants with the best manufactures. In PATTERNS we carry the Latest Designs for the special benefit of a class who prefer our Cutter to look after their needs. He is turning out something daily that will please the wearer. Our force is the usual courteous and competent set of clerks who know the class of goods the buyer most requires and ever ready to fill orders. Figures we don't publish. You can be satisfied on that point at the outset in purchasing.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.—Judge Shattuck was engaged yesterday in hearing a motion for a new trial in the case of J. H. Fisk vs. D. V. B. Henarie, which was argued and submitted. Fisk sued for $60,000 commission for selling 60,000 acres of land known as the Dalles military wagon road and got a verdict for the amount sued. The attorneys for the defendants then submitted two motions to Judge Smith. One was for a new trial and another for judgment notwithstanding the verdict of the jury. Plaintiff's attorney moved for judgment on the verdict. Judge Smith sustained the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict and the case was appealed to the supreme court, which tribunal set aside Judge Smith's ruling and decided that the two previous motions before lower court that is the motion for a new trial and the motion for judgment on the verdict could be considered by the state circuit court, as they are still before that court, and the supreme court only acted as an appellant court and had decided on the motion brought before it. Judge Shattuck consequently allowed the motion before the state circuit [court] for a new trial to be argued and submitted.

SUIT FOR INSURANCE.—The case of Elizabeth Stapleton vs the Oakland Home Insurance company was on trial in the United States circuit court yesterday. This is one of [a] series of cases brought to recover insurance for the loss by fire [of] the [illegible] hotel in this city [illegible] ago. Some time after the fire several parties were arrested and tried in the state circuit court on an accusation of burning the building, but were acquitted. The company defend the cases upon the following grounds: They allege in their answer that the plaintiff and her husband caused the building to be burned; that they failed to furnish proper proofs of the loss in due and regular time; that the building destroyed stood upon leased ground and that voided the policy; that if the interest of the plaintiff should be [illegible] the policy was void; that her interest was disputed by creditors of her husband, and that the sheriff was in possession; that the property destroyed was over valued. The reply of the plaintiff denied these allegations. The case is expected to go to the jury to day.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.—There are now 310 students attending Willamette university. This number will be considerably increased before the maximum number of attendance of the school year is reached. The second term has opened very prosperously. The university has made arrangements to furnish day board to young men and boys for $1 50 per week. With an experience of one term this arrangement has been found to be practicable. Over fifty young men are now boarding in the hall provided for them at this price. Ex-Gov Gibbs has just sent to the university about 60 volumes as a free gift. The McGibeny family will give a concert in Reed's opera house December 11 for the benefit of the museum.

JOHANNES BROD EXPLAINED.—In regard to the "Johannes brod" mentioned yesterday, Mr. H. A. Ball writes to inform THE OREGONIAN that it is the fruit of the Ceratonia siliqua, a leguminous plant growing in the basin of the Mediterranean. The fruit pulp contains 40 to 50 per cent of sugar. It is remarkable only for the fact that it contains free butyric acid, to which its odor is due. It is used in Europe as an expectorant and demulcent, but is not much used in the United States, and has no value as a medicine. It seems that the principal value of the article lies in its being a cheap substitute for taffy for children.

DEATH OF AN EX-CAPTAIN OF POLICE.—Policeman Belcher yesterday received a telegram from La Grande announcing the death of Pen Collins, who was captain of police here ten years ago, and asking if the force would bring the body here for burial. This is not probable, however, as there are only two members on the force now who served during Collins's time. About a year ago Collins was struck over the head with an iron bar in a hotel at Union, and hasn't been well since. It is not known, however, that this had much to do with causing his death.

PENNILESS IN HIS AGE.—Yesterday morning Dr. O. Dunning, a pioneer resident of this city for the past twenty years, applied to the chief of police to be admitted to the county hospital. The doctor looks about [illegible]0 years of age and at one time enjoyed a very lucrative practice here. He was one of the most enthusiastic disciples of Isaac Walton in Oregon during his more prosperous days, and it is said there is not a stream in the state that he has not whipped for fish. The old man looks very feeble and as if he were really in need of care.

INSANE FROM HUNGER AND SICKNESS.—Mrs. M. Fried, a German woman 41 years of age and the mother of five children, was examined yesterday by Drs. Mackenzie and Saylor for insanity and ordered committed to the insane asylum. The cause of her insanity is poverty and domestic trouble. She has recently been in St. Vincent's hospital having no particular disease, but had been previous to being sent there wasting away from hunger and other privations. She is melancholy and imagines some one is going to kill her.

SHOW GOODS STOLEN.—Saturday night two coats were stolen from off the dummies in front of L. Mendelsson's clothing store on First street, between Morrison and Yamhill, and last night two pairs of pantaloons were stolen from in front of Steinbach's and one pair from in front of G. Gumbert's clothing store on First street between Madison and Jefferson. All of these larcenies occurred just about dusk. Merchants who make a show of wares in front of their doors will do well to keep an eye to them as night approaches.

AGED PIONEER DEAD.—Mrs. Hood, of Oregon City, one of the oldest pioneers of the state, died on Sunday at the Cascades, where she had gone in hopes of benefitting her health. She came to this state about 1845 with her husband, who died some eighteen years ago. She was the mother of Mrs. John Myers and Mrs. Joseph Ralston. The remains were taken to Oregon City yesterday for burial.

ARRESTED FOR PERJURY.—Frank Burkhart was arrested yesterday in Justice Tuttle's court on a charge of perjury, preferred by George C. Sears. It is alleged that during the suit of Gerdes & Bate[illegible] vs. George C. Sears, recently tried in the state circuit court, Burkhart as a witness swore falsely as to some property attached by Sears as sheriff during his term of office.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the last regular meeting of Ivanhoe lodge No. 10, K. of P., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: C. C., Samuel L. Berry; V. C., Geo. A. Bevis; P., R. R. Forford; M. of A., H. A. Moser; M. of F., C. W. Browning; M. of E., O. H. Crabbe; K. of R. and S., Fred H. Martin; trustee, Wm. Douty; grand representative, Fred H. Martin.

TABERNACLE ENTERTAINMENT.—An instrumental concert by Parsons & Bray's orchestra, the battles of the rebellion illustrated by stereopticon, and a lecture by Rev. T. D. Driver, D. D., on "What Made the Yankee Go," is the programme for the next Y. M. C. A. entertainment at the Tabernacle on Friday evening of this week.

BRIEF MENTION

[illegible] license to wed was issued yesterday to [illegible] Nelson and Annie Iverson.

The trial of the Thwaites-Hanscome [illegible] is set for Wednesday next in Judge Shattuck's court.

The sailing of the steamer Ellen Miles from [illegible] for Gray's harbor has been postponed till Thursday, December 2.

The case of D. F. Kent vs. [illegible] was continued for trial in state circuit court, department No. 1, yesterday, by stipulation.

W. S. Ladd's artesian well is now down [illegible] feet, and is in a rock of royal purple hue. The next color struck will probably be red—hot.

The [illegible] broke her machinery about 10 yesterday afternoon, but will be running again in a day or two. The Rowena is running in her place.

The American District Telegraph company began stringing wires yesterday. The poles [illegible] is on Stark street and the wires are strung along the tops of buildings principally.

St. Andrew's day.—Father [illegible] gathering [illegible] of the best [illegible] the feast at the M[illegible] hall this evening. An attractive programme including Highland [illegible] costume.

According to good authority the grand jury is engaged in investigating a charge of criminal libel [illegible] W. H. Bo[illegible] in an article [illegible] published in the Sittings concerning Mrs. Kennedy.

John D. [illegible] filed his report yesterday [illegible] of the Portland General hospital [illegible] appears thirty-seven claims have been filed during the time allowed by law, [illegible]

The snowy owl sent to THE OREGONIAN reporters a few days since is kind of lonely. If some other friend of the reporters will send along another owl or two he will confer a favor [illegible] and make the owl happy. If a live one cannot be secured a dead one will do.

Charley Jennings, the [illegible] year old son of [illegible] Jennings, after coming home from school yesterday afternoon went out and up to 11 o'clock this morning had not been heard of. His parents are very uneasy about him, having searched in vain all the evening for him. He had on a gray suit and a gray turban hat.

Mrs. R. Stevenson was arrested yesterday and taken before Justice Bushwiler, charged with larceny by bailee of two cords of wood from Mrs. [illegible]. The latter is a tenant of Mrs. Stevenson, who held the wood for room rent due. The judge in his fatherly way reconciled differences between the parties and they left satisfied.

Yesterday in the police court Robert Lowrie was convicted of assault and battery on Ah Chow, a Chinaman, and sent to the county jail for two days. Lowrie is accused of having with a companion, who escaped arrest, attempted to rob the Celestial, but sufficient evidence to substantiate this charge could not be produced.

About 8 o'clock last evening a fellow known as Bohemian Frank made an unprovoked attack on a Chinaman named Lee Goon at the corner of Third and Yamhill streets. Policemen Young and He[illegible] and who witnessed the act, run him in and booked him for drunk and disorderly. A charge of assault and battery will be made to day.

Harry C. Stevens, while thawing out giant powder in the blacksmith shop of the Pacific [illegible] at Butte, on Friday last, was instantly killed and the shop demolished by the explosion of the powder. This practice of thawing out giant powder by fire is a common one, and by miners is not considered dangerous in spite of the fact that every now and then a man loses his life by the procedure.

Alas! At last Portland shall see its dreaded rival Tacoma wince and suffer in pocket. The golden chariot of the Egyptian doctor has [illegible] owed her to that city, and now the citizens will feel the pangs of [illegible] extraction of their molars and part with their coin for useless remedies of the Egyptian [illegible]. And their maimed, halt and blind shall be imposed upon and relieved of their surplus coin, and Portland people will rejoice with exceeding great joy—for misery likes company.

A rather coltus young man, who resides with his "adopted father" out back of East Portland, drove into that city yesterday and imbibed more tanglefoot than he could get away with in good shape. In trying to drive out home he was thrown out in the mud and the horse ran away. The aforesaid adopted parent caught the horse and came back on the road far enough to see by the kicking and struggling of the young man that he was not killed, and then turned about and drove off home. It is not known whether the young man kicked himself out of the mud or whether he is there yet.

THE EAST SIDE

COUNCIL MEETING.

A special meeting of the common council was held last evening, at which all members were present except Humphrey.

The reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting was dispensed with and the following business was transacted:

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Committee on fire and water submitted a report in relation to gas lamps and a contract with the [East] Portland Gas company therefor. On motion of Bloomer the same was adopted.

A report by the same committee in relation to oil lamps and a contract with A. [illegible] John[illegible] therefor referred to a committee of the whole, Mr. Bloomer in the chair.

The committee after discussion approved the contract upon the bonds being increased to $[illegible]0.

On health and police appointing J. M. Robert[son] night policeman at the sum of $[illegible]0 per month, duties to commence on December 1, 1886, on motion of Bancroft adopted.

ORDINANCES.

The following ordinances were read a first and second time:

First—An ordinance declaring the probable cost of improving Water street.

Second—An ordinance fixing the salary of the city recorder.

Third—An ordinance fixing the salary of the city marshal.

Fourth—An ordinance fixing the salary of the street commissioner.

Motion by Merrick—That Mr. Merrick be authorized to purchase the [illegible] plant burner for the council rooms. Carried. Adjourned.

DOINGS IN THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Wm. Dryden, against whom a complaint was filed in the above court accusing him of assault and battery upon F. H. Parker on the night of the row in the Brunswick saloon, was tried yesterday morning before Recorder Newell and resulted in his acquittal.

Dryden was then arraigned on information filed against him accusing him of gambling, and the examination resulted in his being put under $[illegible] bond to appear before the grand jury.

Clark Lawrence, who was tried on Friday last and found guilty of assault and battery, was sentenced yesterday to pay a fine of $[illegible]. The fine was paid and he was released from custody.

Late on Sunday night officer Atterberry found a young man named William Cook sleeping under a counter in an unoccupied store on the south side of L street, near the ferry slip. The officer roused the sleeper and asked him if he had got permission to stay there, and the answer being in the negative he was escorted to the city jail. Yesterday morning a complaint was filed against him accusing him of trespass and being found guilty he was sentenced to five days imprisonment in the county jail.

EAST PORTLAND TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The next meeting of the East Portland teachers' institute will take place at the Central school on Saturday next, at which the following programme will be observed:

Class exercise in language—Miss Foss.
Geography, Pelton's system illustrated—Miss Crawford.
Drawing—Miss Forbes.
Geography illustrated by sand table—Prof. W. A. Wetzell.

Each exercise is limited to twenty minutes, this giving ten minutes for the discussion of each subject.

NOTES.

Several large truck loads of the iron work for the new Morrison street bridge were brought over the Stark street ferry yesterday.

A large number of men left this city yesterday for Bull Run, where they go to work on the [new] water works. It took the Eagle Creek stage and a large furniture wagon to carry the men.

A series of religious meetings were commenced at the Evangelical church, Milwaukie, last evening, and will continue every evening during the week. The ministers engaged are Rev. H. L. Pratt, Rev. F. B[illegible] and Rev. C. C. Poling.

Rev. C. C. Poling, who has just returned from Corvallis, reports that Rev. H. L. Pratt, assistant pastor of the Evangelical church in this city, and Miss Mary Dunn were married at the residence of the bride's parents near Corvallis on Wednesday, the [illegible] inst., the ceremony being performed by the former.

Messrs. A. H. Breyman and John Somerville returned Sunday last from Eastern Oregon and Washington, where they have been during the past three weeks in the interest of their sheep and stock ranches.

They report the grass in that section as very light on account of the long continued dry weather, but say they have had a little rain and some snow and a few days of very cold weather. The sheep and stock are all doing well and taking it altogether the outlook is encouraging.

THE STAGE

NEW MARKET THEATER.—Miss Kate [illegible], who is pleasantly remembered here in "Zenu, the Mad Cap" and other similar plays, opened her season at the New Market theater last night in her new play "From The Ruff" to a very large and apparently well pleased audience. There is a certain pleasing charm about Miss Putnam's acting, and she [illegible] perhaps the comedy side of the several [illegible] with [illegible] effect as to instantly ca[illegible] her audience. While there is a little too much precision of speech, as it were, in her [illegible] yet with the [illegible] of her humor and the spontaneity of her comedy she never fails to produce [illegible] able effect. The character [illegible] her abundant opportunity to illustrate [illegible] powers. Pathos and [illegible] are so [illegible] and the [illegible] so frequent that she is each and both almost in the same [illegible]. As [illegible] the Indian princess she evoked roars of laughter and in the fire scene [illegible] the third act, as well as the scene in the last act where she turns the tables on the villain and establishes her claim to recognition as an heiress, she won storms of applause. The play itself, while not remarkable either in construction or literary merit, contains enough of easy dialogue and good situations to bring out the best points of the company, which is better than the average. Mr. James Devlin as Signor Bosanko, the impecunious but good natured actor, is an exceedingly clever comedian, while Mr. A. Classford as the bachelor uncle Mr. Bluffkins gave a most enjoyable and refreshing personation. Mr. H. B. Emery as Harry [illegible] had but much opportunity to show his mettle. [illegible] Hicks as Robert Raikes, Fannie Ma[illegible] as Margie and Mary Putnam as Araminta were all good, the latter especially so. To night "[illegible] Barefoot."

Artistic Display

The holiday season being near at hand, Mr. Albert Feldenheimer has taken special pains to introduce an unusually large stock of jewelry, clocks, watches, diamonds, and in fact of all goods pertaining to the trade. The elegance of these goods surpasses anything yet offered in this city. The public should inspect the various lines and make selections.

THE MORRISON ST. BRIDGE.

Application Made to the U. S. Court for an Injunction.

The Same Old Objections about Insufficiency of Draw and Damage to Wharf Property Offered—Some Questions Propounded

A bill of complaint was filed by Alexander Hamilton against the Pacific Bridge company in the United States circuit court yesterday. Following is a synopsis of the bill:

Humbly complaining, Hamilton, the orator, states that he is the owner of the north half of lot [illegible] in block [illegible] in the city of Portland, and of the riparian rights and privileges pertaining thereto.

That said lot at its eastern end abuts on the Willamette, a navigable stream traversed daily by steamboats going to points on said stream far above said property.

That the owner has the right to build a wharf upon said property, and that he is now about having a wharf constructed on said property extending from low water mark to the ship channel.

That the water in front and east of said wharf is at low water of the depth of forty feet, so that vessels of any draught capable of navigating the Columbia are able to land at said wharf.

That said real property is of the value of $[illegible] and the said wharf right constitutes the greater portion of said value.

That on the 18th of October [illegible] the legislature granted to the Portland Bridge company the right to construct and maintain a bridge across the Willamette between Portland and East Portland, said bridge to be erected at any time within six years from the passage of the act, said bridge to have a draw of not less than 100 feet in the clear.

That in July 1886 the Willamette Iron Bridge company commenced the construction of a bridge from Morrison street to N street in East Portland, with a draw pier located in the ship's channel having 100 feet between the pier and the next pier.

That suit was brought by J. J. Hatch et al. to enjoin the construction of said bridge at said locality with such proposed draw on the ground that it would constitute a dangerous obstruction to navigation, and such proceedings were had that the work of constructing said work at said point was perpetually enjoined.

That in 1886 the said Pacific Bridge company commenced work on said bridge by blasting out some of the unfinished piers and parts of piers which had been constructed and widening the distance between some of said piers, and H. [illegible] Campbell and C. F. Swigert and others are now engaged in constructing said bridge across said river.

That the original draw pier has been enlarged and the distance between it and the next pier increased to [illegible] feet [illegible] inches.

That the ship channel at said point is nearly [illegible] feet deep and over 500 feet wide.

That the debris of said original piers was mainly [illegible] and was [illegible] into the channel of said river between said draw pier and said adjacent piers so as to fill up said channel to the depth of three or four feet, etc.

That the direction, force and rapidity of said stream is such that if said bridge is to be constructed with a draw of less than 200 feet will greatly obstruct said river and render the passage of boats and ships hazardous, whereby the value of said real property will be irreparably damaged.

That said bridge as it is being constructed is an unlawful structure and fails to conform to the requirements of the act of the legislature.

That the said Pacific Bridge company is the principal owner of said bridge.

To the end therefore that said bridge company may make full answer to all matters aforesaid the following questions are propounded for them to answer:

First—Whether they are building said bridge and whether Campbell and Swigert are not agents employed in constructing said bridge?

Second—Whether said defendant is not the owner and holder of a majority of the stock.

Third—Whether it is not agreed that when the bridge is completed it is to be managed in the interest of said defendant.

Fourth—Whether the piers are not being constructed as hereinbefore stated and how and where said draw pier and the piers adjacent thereto are situated with relation to the ship channel.

Fifth—Whether said Campbell and Swigert are not as agents managing the construction and if not who is.

Sixth—By what authority defendant is building said bridge and piers.

Seventh—What is the width of said draw and what is the distance between the piers.

And to the end that the plaintiff may have proper relief it is prayed that a writ of injunction may be granted against said defendant commanding said bridge company forthwith to desist from further constructing said bridge according to the plan upon which it is being constructed or upon any plan with a draw of less than 200 feet, and upon final hearing of this cause said bridge and said insufficient draw be declared an unlawful structure and the further construction thereof be perpetually enjoined and that defendant be required to remove said debris from the bed of said stream and to remove said piers and each of them from being constructed on either side of said draw pier, etc.

And to this end it is asked that a writ of subpena be issued addressed to said Pacific Bridge company commanding them to appear and give full answers to all matters in this bill set forth.

Whalley, Bronaugh & North, p. [illegible] L. T. Bingham and Watson, Hume & Watson are attorneys for the complainant. It is generally understood that the Stark Street Ferry company are the real complainants.

A Foolish and Stubborn Belief

In the efficacy of certain remedies of which time [illegible] is the [illegible] foible of the ignorant and [illegible]. The indiscriminate use of purgatives is a very common phase of the fatuity of such people. Aloes, podophyllin, [illegible] calomel, castor oil, mercury and other old fashioned drugs still hold their own among this class, and although the success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters sufficiently disproves the necessity for violence in medication, the adherents of an exploded fallacy still persist in giving and taking in ordinate [illegible] doses. Dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint are certainly and thoroughly subdued by the Bitters, as they are invariably [illegible] by an indiscriminate use of medicines [illegible] proprietary belonging to the class which we have condemned. Fever and ague, nervousness, rheumatism and inactivity of the kidneys yield to the Bitters.

THE SWAMP LAND SWINDLES.

GARDEN HOME, Or., Nov 27

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

In last week's OREGONIAN appears a letter from T. A. Davenport concerning the "swamp land swindles." I have read the letter with much interest, but although Mr. Davenport seems to think it an easy matter to set aside all title acquired or claimed by the swamp land grabbers, I fail to see that he points out the way how to do it. He intimates that the next legislature can and should do it, that is, restore these lands to the people of this state. But would it not be well for a man of Mr. Davenport's ability and knowledge to point out the way how to do it. The legislative session is but short, many of the legislators are there for the first time, and advice and knowledge coming from a man like Mr. Davenport might help much to remedy and counteract the great wrong done to the people of this state in this matter.

Mr. Davenport was a member of the Oregon legislature in 18[illegible] and 18[illegible]. What did he do to right this great wrong that existed then if it exists now? Mr. Davenport says: "These certificates from the state board [illegible] issued in defiance of the act of the legislative assembly of 18[illegible] are the titles by which the grabbers exercise despotic sway over an extent of country large enough for a [illegible]." [illegible] it is always well and just to hear both sides, and I as well as many others would like to hear from the state board. Let there be light on this question, and I hope to see the matter fully discussed and explained in your columns. If these swamp land certificates were issued illegally and it is not too late to set them aside, the next legislature should do so, or if necessary, appropriate means to bring the matter before our courts.

$500 Reward

The former proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for years made a standing public offer in all American newspapers of $500 reward for a case of catarrh that he could not cure. The present proprietors have renewed this offer. All the druggists sell this Remedy, together with the "Douche" and all other appliances advised to be used in connection with it. No catarrh patient is longer able to say "I cannot be cured." You get $500 in case of failure.

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY, Nov. 29.

Overland receipts include [illegible] sks peanuts, [illegible] rls barbed wire, 1500 cs coal oil, 3 pkgs [illegible] 4 tubs candy, 2 cs 100 butts tobacco, [illegible] cs boots and shoes, 2 cs dry goods, [illegible] bls comforts, 1 cs cigars, 5 cs clocks, 60 cs lard, [illegible] cs cigarettes, [illegible] bbls molasses, 13 trunks, 19 bls sail duck, 19 bls [illegible] bagging, 4 bbls 10 cs bottles, 75 bdls [illegible] bxs chair stock, 10 [illegible] well buckets.

The visible supply of wheat in the United States (exclusive of California and Oregon) and Canada is given by telegraph Nov. 29 as 59,572,000 bushels, an increase for a week of 41,000 bushels. The increase for the same week last year was 1,272,000 bushels, and the total in sight was [illegible] bushels.

The coffee market is very firm at the recent advance, and there is every indication that present prices here will be maintained for some time. Even should New York back down the Pacific markets could hardly recede, as all Central American sorts are in limited supply and must be until new crop comes. At San Francisco the stock in first hands is reduced to 372 bags Costa Rica and 999 bags Salvador, and the total supply in hands of importers, dealers and speculators is estimated at not much over 20,000 bags. In that market a strong speculative demand set in about the middle of November, and since then something like 7000 bags were rapidly sold at advancing prices, many parcels changing hands several times. Salvador, the description most abundant, was most active. Independent of Eastern markets those of this coast must apparently maintain themselves, as the qualities mostly dealt in will be in limited supply and in strong hands until new crop arrives.

In its review of the San Francisco market for last week the Commercial News says: "The week is shortened by the celebration of Thanksgiving day, and the occasion has of late somewhat stimulated trade in fancy groceries, poultry, etc., but otherwise has tended to depress business, as holidays usually do. The changes that have occurred during the week are unimportant and generally toward firmer figures. Sugar has been in fair request at the very low rates current. No change has been made in refining rates this week, but they are liable to occur at any time. Teas are in light supply. Now that all the extra No. 1 rice has passed out of first hands, No. 1 is firmer and sells at $5 37½@5 50 per two bags. Other grades are unchanged. Hawaiian has been selling freely both from wharf and store, the quotations remain steady at $4 12½ usual time. Nut oil shows a rather wider range, but the outside price indicates a little more firmness. There is a stronger tone to the coal market, owing to the reduced supplies en route or loading at foreign ports, and this is apt to continue, as grain freights are so low that there is nothing to tempt vessels to come here unless a good freight to this port can be secured. Iron is without material change, in spite of a better market at the East and abroad. The season being over, pig tin is nominal at 27c, there being no demand. Tin plate, both iron and steel, are lower, quoted at $1 [illegible] per box. Terne is quiet at $5@5 10 per box. Quicksilver continues firm under light receipts. The demand is not extensive but sufficient to keep prices steady at $38 50@39 per flask. The shipments of salmon during the week have been on a liberal scale, the Australian steamer and the Zuleika for Sydney, carrying off the greater part. No business of moment is reported in the spot market, and prices are largely nominal. Canned fruits continue firm with a good demand for all descriptions."

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 48 hours: 17,105 ctls wheat, 2120 bbls flour, 2816 ctls oats, 142 ctls bran, 600 ctls millstuffs, 207 sks potatoes, 125 bls wool, 3760 [illegible] hides, 33 cs eggs, 15,54[illegible] hops, 15 pkgs butter, 1253 bxs fruit, 207 pkgs dried do, 42 hogs, 160 sheep, 60 cattle. Also from the eastern section 17,0[illegible] ctls wheat, 1415 bbls flour, 2885 [illegible] hides, 169 hogs, 37 cattle, 716 sks flaxseed.

FREIGHTS—The Sudbourn, 1703 tons, arrived under prior charter for foreign account. Two large iron have been taken to come from San Francisco, terms private. A vessel, probably the Eudora, now at Port Moody, has closed for berth business hence to Hong Kong, Chinese account.

WHEAT—Of the receipt of valley about one-half is by river lines, a good portion coming off the narrow gauge lines. Some is for San Francisco and some comes by the west side road for the same destination. The O. R. & N. Co. have made low rates from river points for San Francisco business to affect Yaquina competition. Arrivals of valley may be expected to increase as navigation is extended. The eastern section has sold rather freely of late and receipts will probably increase for a time. Valley is quoted $1 27½@1 28, according to last sales. Walla Walla is something better than $1 17½, with not much done here. To-day's advices, if followed up promptly by others of similar character, must enhance values. New York closed ½c above Saturday and Chicago 1½@1⅝c above. The American visible shows a very small increase for the week. The foreign markets are higher and seemingly in good tone, and San Francisco responds by quoting up to $1 46¼ for best parcels.

FLOUR—Agents now quoting standards on basis of $3 [illegible], the usual 2 per cent. off for cash. It is said all fell in line and sent out new figures Saturday evening. The market is firm in sympathy with wheat.

OATS—Of the receipts noted 1[illegible] centals are for San Francisco by the west side. Most of the balance comes to dealers and some not sold is held up to 44c, a figure that will doubtless be secured. San Francisco is receiving considerable Eastern.

EGGS—Stocks and receipts light, the market ruling firm at 25c.

POULTRY—Demands small and easily supplied, values ruling weak.

HIDES—A lot of 36,400 lbs dry and green sheepskins in from Ogden to Lesbiand Bros. This is decidedly a new departure. They will be worked up by the local establishment.

APPLES—Receipts lessening and market less active. Prices not affected.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Government bonds were dull but strong. Stocks showed most extraordinary activity. Low-priced stocks were back to their normal condition of dullness, while almost all of the old favorites became prominent in the dealings. Pacific stocks, among which Union Pacific and Pacific Mail were prominent, were largely traded in, rumors of an adjustment of their difficulty being circulated. The opening was very active, but at irregular changes from last Saturday's final prices, differences ranging from 1⅛ below to ¾ above, while the best point was up 1⅛. Prices were decidedly weak in early trading. The upward movement gathered renewed strength in the last hour, and the market closed very active and strong, close to the best prices reached.

SAN FRANCISCO MINING STOCKS REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—The market opened with another boom this morning; Con. California $26, Best & Belcher $1[illegible], Ophir $16 50, and Mexican $7. On call Con. California sold up to $[illegible]; Best & Belcher dropped to $17; Ophir sold up to $16 25. The balance of the list were all higher. Con. California, Best & Belcher and Ophir continue to be the leaders but an immense business is doing all along the line. On afternoon call the leaders sold off, with two or three others, while the balance of the list was generally higher. News continues very good from Con. MARK LANE REVIEW.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the British grain trade during the past week, says: Sparse offers of native wheat are attracting the attention of the trade, and it is now believed that the crop has been largely over estimated. It is now estimated at only [illegible] quarters. In provincial markets supplies are rather greater, and values have not risen. Sales of English wheat during the week were [illegible] quarters, at 31s 1[illegible]d, against [illegible],218 quarters, at [illegible]s [illegible]d during the corresponding period last year. In London the trade in wheat off coast is firmer, and values are generally 6d higher, with an advance on American, Russian and choice Indian. Prices of flour and corn are maintained. There are large supplies of oats, and the market is dull. Two cargoes of wheat arrived, two cargoes were sold, and five were withdrawn. The market was cleared of supply Saturday evening. At to-day's market there was a limited trade, and wheat was in good demand. Flour was 6d higher. Corn was 3d dearer. Oats were 3d lower.

BEERBOHM.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Floating cargoes, firm. Cargoes on passage, demand fair, prices a shade higher. Mark Lane, wheat, English and foreign firm, flour, English firm, American strong. California cargoes nearly due, 35s 6d; California prompt shipment, 36s. No. 2 spring, prompt shipment, [illegible]. Arrivals off coast, wheat small; [illegible]. English country markets, firm; French do, steady. Farmers' deliveries past week, wheat, 45,000 to 50,000 quarters, at an average price of 32s per quarter.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 29.—Wheat, firmer; held higher.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—Spot wheat and flour, steady.

LONDON, Nov. 29, 5 P. M.—Cargoes on passage, the market closed better.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 29.—Wheat, firm, demand improving; holders offer moderately. Corn, steady, demand poor.

It is said that Prince Bismarck, by his advice to his Reichenbach interviewer to "read Goethe's 'Faust,'" has not only helped the second-hand bookseller to clear out every hitherto unsold copy of that poem, but has stirred up Cotta, Reclam and a host of publishers to issue new editions of it in all sizes and prices. The great chancellor has also served as an unconscious advertiser in a more delicate affair. In the beginning of February the advertising columns of a newspaper contained the following insertion: "Offer of Marriage—A merchant of pleasing exterior, [illegible] years old, with a prosperous business and a large capital, has been moved through reading the recent debates in the chambers to seek a wife. As so many of the speakers, and especially his highness, the imperial chancellor, warmly praised the amiability of the Polish ladies, he is resolved to wed no one but a Pole. She need not possess any property, but must be of a handsome figure, [illegible] between the ages of 17 and [illegible]." Replies, under a specified signature, were to be sent to the publishing office of the paper. The same journal announced last week that it had learned, through a friend of the advertiser, that his search for a Polish wife was most successful. He is the husband of a very charming Polish lady, with whom he is now upon a wedding tour in the south of Italy.

LOSSES IN LITERATURE.

New York Mail and Express.

The greatest calamity to books in the ancient world was the destruction of the Alexandrian library. This library was in two buildings, one said to contain 400,000 volumes, and the other 300,000. The former was destroyed accidentally by soldiers. The other library was subsequently increased, and surpassed the part of the library that was burned, but was finally totally destroyed by the Caliph Omar, whose narrowness of mind could see nothing worthy of preservation outside the Koran. "If these writings agree with the Koran," Omar is reported to have said, "they are useless and need not be preserved; if they disagree, they are pernicious and ought to be destroyed;" and the scrolls of this vast repository were distributed to the 4000 baths in the city, and were six months in being burned.

Many books of antiquity were destroyed by royal edict, others by decrees of councils, and still others fell under the anathema of the Pope. The Roman church has been especially inimical to literature, and again and again has she attempted to silence all who opposed her doctrines and policy. Pope Alexander VI ordered all books prejudicial to the church to be burned. Pope Gregory VII ordered the Palestine Apollo to be destroyed by fire, a library that had been enriched by several emperors. The distinction between profane and sacred literature dates doubtless from this time, all works not sanctioned by the church being declared profane. The Jesuits quite effectually stamped out the literature and destroyed the national independence of the Bohemians by their proscriptions.

How much has literature and history lost through the famous Indexes? The Index was a catalogue of books forbidden to be read. Another list, called the Expurgatory Index, contained the titles of books that were to be amended by the church. Catholics, however, were not the only destructionists. The Reformers had their bonfires, selecting for their prey illuminated manuscripts; the Puritans waged war on popish books, Jews burned pagan books and Romans Jewish books; and in these conflagrations, while the world has been rid of much that would be an intolerance and an offense to the alcoves of our modern libraries, yet there can be no doubt that religious zeal and partisan spirit has deprived us of much valuable treasure.

A valuable manuscript of the book of Genesis, belonging to the Cottonian library, was partially destroyed by fire in 1731. This manuscript was illustrated with 250 paintings. Of this number only twenty-one were saved. Classic students lament over the lost books of Livy. We have only thirty-five books of this author out of 140. Of Tacitus we have a little more than four books out of thirty, "yet Tacitus in fragments is still the colossal torso of history." It is impossible to estimate what we have suffered in the loss of Varro's lives of 700 distinguished Romans, and Atticus' "Acts of Eminent Citizens of Rome."

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Br bark Glenholm, listed as coming from Melbourne, has accepted other business and will not come here.

Br bark Alliance, hence July 27 with a wheat cargo, has arrived out in a good passage of 124 days. The Alliance will be remembered as having fallen over on the steamboat Ocklahama June 17 last.

Bark Western Belle reached New York the 22d inst., 146 days from Manila.

Br iron bark Banffshire, 889 tons, comes to this port from Australia.

Br iron ship Sudbourn, from San Pedro, came inward to Meyer, Wilson & Co.

The large iron ships recently taken at San Francisco to come here are mostly new and carry well on a draft suitable for this trade. The old style vessels of same tonnage would draw altogether too much water for this port. The American ship Tillie E. Starbuck's depth of hold was 24 ft 1 in, and her draft loaded 20 ft 2 in. The Br ship Elmhurst, recently here, drew, loaded, 21 ft 5 in, and her depth of hold was 23 ft 4 in. Underwriters permit a draft of 22 feet out of the Columbia, and the freeboard calculation is about 2¾ in to one foot depth of hold. The Br ship British Ambassador registers 1294 tons and has a depth of hold of 23 ft 8 in. The Sudbourn has more, 24 feet depth, with a register of 1703 tons. Of other large vessels coming, the Scottish registers 1629 tons. The Am wooden ship Snow & Burgess, 1655 tons, has 24 ft 7 in depth of hold. The Br bark Staffordshire, lately here, registered 1163 tons and had a depth of 23 ft 3 in. She was built in 1862 and her beam is 34 ft 3 in. The Br bark Astoria, now here, registers 1429 tons, has a beam of 38 feet and a depth of hold of 21 ft 9 in. A comparison of these, too, indicates fairly the change in models during the past twenty years. In the list of large carriers here in past years may be mentioned the Baron Aberdare, 1708 tons with 25 ft 5 in depth of hold, here in 1876; the Gatherer, 1509 tons, depth 24 ft 3 in; Bowden, 1624 tons, 23 ft 5 in depth; Dunnottar Castle, 1750 tons, same depth; Samuel Watts, 2035 tons, 30 ft 6 in depth; Santa Clara, 1635 tons, 25 ft 5 in depth; Prince Amadeo, 1602 tons, 24 ft depth; Oreole, 1530 tons, same depth; Levi G. Burgess, 1616 tons, 24 ft 3 in depth; Wallacetown, 1626 tons, 23 ft 5 in depth; Fritz, 1624 tons, 25 ft depth; Trafalgar, 1698 tons, 25 ft 5 in depth. Of the above the Fritz and Samuel Watts did not carry full cargo by several hundred tons. Some others have gone out with less than could be carried, but it will be seen that most of the large vessels here have been of a depth of less than 24 feet. In 1865 the Eskdale, 1248 tons, was here and was looked upon as being a very large vessel. With a draft of 22 feet allowed few modern vessels would be too large for this port.

BLACK WOLF.

Or Black Leprosy, is a disease which is considered incurable, but it has yielded to the curative properties of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC—now known all over the world as S. S. S. Mrs. Bailey, of West Somerville, Mass., near Boston, was attacked several years ago with this hideous black eruption, and was treated by the best medical talent, who could only say that the disease was a species of and consequently incurable. It is impossible to describe her sufferings. Her body from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay, masses of flesh rotting off and leaving great cavities. Her fingers festered and three or four nails dropped off at one time. Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bed. Her weight was reduced from 123 to 60 lbs. Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores. Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf, and commended the sufferer to her all-wise Creator.

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC (S. S. S.), prevailed on her to try it as a last resort. She began its use under protest, but soon found that her system was being relieved of the poison, as the sores assumed a red and healthy color, as though the blood was becoming pure and active. Mrs. Bailey continued the S. S. S. until last February; every sore was healed; she discarded chair and crutches, and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman. Her husband, Mr. C. A. Bailey, is in business at 17½ Blackstone Street, Boston, and will take pleasure in giving the details of this wonderful cure. Send to us for Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA. BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins by grocers, labeled thus: JAMES EPPS & CO., Homeopathic Chemists, London, England.
